

NOTES OF INTEREST FROM LEADING SOCIAL RESORTS

RUSH OF WEDDINGS AT THE CAPITAL

Washington's Social Schedule for Past and Coming Weeks Full of Overflowing.

(From The Tribune Bureau.)
Washington, April 4.—Weddings form the important part of Washington's social calendar for Easter week and the weeks to come, even to the middle of June. While, of course, the marriage of Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson and William Gibbs McAdoo is of interest, there are others scheduled for that part of April after Easter and for May which are of consuming interest. In each of these the White House bride-elect takes an interest. She has several times this week been entertained, with Miss Maitland Marshall, whose bridesmaid she is to be, and several small parties have been given in honor of Miss Wilson and Mr. McAdoo.

Not only because Miss Eleanor Wilson is to be her bridesmaid, but for other reasons, the marriage of Miss Maitland Marshall and Paymaster John H. Knapp, U. S. N., is commanding attention. Her trousseau will be a really historic creation, for into the dainty garments are going the stitches of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President; Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice-President; the wives of several Cabinet members and others who are making the history of the day. Because Mrs. William L. Marshall was formerly Elizabeth H. Colquitt, daughter of the late Senator Colquitt, of Georgia, Mrs. Wilson is taking keen interest in the details of the wedding. Mrs. Marshall, whose interest comes more from the Marshall side of the house, drove over to General Marshall's home this afternoon and spent some hours putting dainty stitches into the trousseau.

The uncertainty surrounding the wedding date of Miss Marshall and Paymaster Knapp, April 22, was entirely reversed on Friday the Secretary of the Navy telephoned to Miss Marshall that the Mayflower, upon which the bridegroom-elect is stationed, would leave her Mexican port in a few hours and sail for her normal mooring in the Potomac. That settled the matter, and Miss Marshall at one telephoned to Miss Eleanor Wilson and her other bridesmaids, telling them the good news.

Edward Randolph Eberle, whose father, Captain Edward W. Eberle, is at the Naval War College, at Newport, will be best man for Paymaster Knapp, and the ushers will be the officers of the Mayflower. If there are not enough of them on that ship, then those of the Dolphin will be added. One of the prettiest of the pre-nuptial events for Miss Marshall and Paymaster Knapp will be on board the Mayflower, with the officers as hosts, when there will be dancing. The ceremony will take place at the Church of the Covenant on Wednesday afternoon, April 22, and it is probable that the President will be among the guests.

The wedding of Miss Anna V. Porter and Representative Henry D. Flood on Saturday, April 18, will be imposing in aspect for it will fill all Souls' Church with diplomats. There are several surprises in store for those interested in the event. Miss Porter, who will be in New York until tomorrow, will have her sister, Mrs. Lorimer Graham, as matron of honor, and another sister, Miss Hildegarde Porter, will be one of the bridesmaids. Miss Edith Grace will be one of the bride's attendants, and will also be a bridesmaid for Miss Anna Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bennett, of West Virginia, and Johnson C. McKinley, also of West Virginia, who will be married at St. John's Church, on Lafayette Square, on April 14. There will be a wedding breakfast at the New Willard.

St. John's Church will also be the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary M. Worthington, daughter of Mrs. Richard Selman Worthington, and Beach Helme Stockett. This will be an evening wedding, and a reception at the home of the bride will follow.

One of the most charming tea dances of the week was that at the home of Representative and Mrs. Dunn, in 15th street, yesterday, when Miss Frances Dunn, their daughter, entertained for her house guest, Miss Mary J. Dunn, of Rochester. The ballroom and drawing rooms were a veritable garden of roses and spring blossoms, and the Myer Davis orchestra played for dancing. Assisting the two girls in receiving the sixty or eighty guests was Miss Edith Grace and her house guest, Miss Roberta Downing, of Philadelphia; Miss Margaret McDowell, Miss Adelaide Bell Heath and Miss Nancy Johnson.

Two of the embassies will be deprived of their charming chainlains next week—the Austrian Embassy, which will lose for a time Mme. Constantin Theodor Dumba, who went to New York to-day and will sail Tuesday for Austria, and the German Embassy, for Countess von Bernstorff, wife of the ambassador, will sail a few days later. Scidom has an ambassador's wife so quickly won her way into the hearts of the people as pretty Mme. Dumba, and her return to Washington will be hailed with delight.

TO SPEND EASTER IN ASHEVILLE

Many Tourists from Far Southern Resorts Will Tarry in Mountains.

Asheville, N. C., April 4.—Many prominent persons coming up from Florida will spend Easter in Asheville, and preparations for a grand ball at Grove Park Inn are under way. The Asheville Country Club will also give a dance during Easter week, and several tournaments will be played by men and women players on the links of the Country Club in the week before and after Easter.

The golf players on the links of the Country Club this week have been much interested in the two young and charming duchesses who play together every day. The Duchess of Manchester is the house guest of the Duchess de Chaulnes at the villa of Mrs. Theodore P. Shonta, in Grove Park, and the two are constantly on the links.

mander Walter Roper, of the Mississippi, is also a guest at the Shonta villa.

E. Clarence Jones gave a small dinner party for the Duchess de Chaulnes and her house party, just before he left for New York this week. The dinner was given at Grove Park Inn, and the unusual decorations were of rhododendrons.

At the largest social event of the week, which was a dinner-dance at the Inn, there were numerous dinner parties. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bacheller, of New York, were among those giving a small party for the evening. Mrs. William G. Gates, of Minneapolis, was the central figure of a party which included Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hoggood, of Minneapolis; H. L. Judd and Peter Corbin, of New Britain, Conn., and R. G. Hoggood, of Minneapolis.

Two of the silver cups in the men's and women's golf tournaments, which have just ended, were won by New York players. Miss L. Schulte getting the silver cup given by Grove Park Inn, and F. S. Hodgman, Jr., the men's cup, given by the Inn to the beaten eight in the handicap tournament for men.

Despite the sudden spring showers which came up several afternoons this week, the horseback riders continued to go out every afternoon. As the favorite bridge paths often lead for miles over the mountains, with no house in sight, many races with the clouds furnished excitement for the riders. Among those who braved the spring showers were Mrs. Charles G. Gates, Miss Dorothy Harvey, Mrs. R. E. Robinson, of New York; Miss Elia Dryfoot, of Cleveland; Miss Antoinette Schulte, of New York, and Miss Mae Riley, of Newton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Gardner, of New York, are prominent arrivals of the week at the Grove Park Inn. They plan to spend Easter in the South, returning to New York soon thereafter. Mrs. Anthony Schulte, of New York, has returned to the Inn, after two weeks in the East, rejoining her daughters, who are here for the spring season.

Mrs. George Harvey and Miss Dorothy Harvey returned to New York Monday, after a fortnight's stay at the Inn.

Among the recent arrivals at the Inn from New York are Hamilton Kerr, George Ahrens, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hotchkiss and Henry S. Pritchett.

A DAY'S DANCING AT HOT SPRINGS

Tea, Dinner and Supper Hours All Entirely Surrounded by Tango and Maxixe.

Hot Springs, Va., April 4.—Dancing continues to attract much attention here at all hours of the day, as well as of the evening, and the dancers, with a negro orchestra in the Casino, have been added to the amusements at The Homestead.

Visitors are divided at the tea hour between the Casino and the hotel lobby, where the ballroom is easily reached when the orchestra breaks into the strains of the maxixe or tango.

The usual routine of social and outdoor affairs was interrupted a few days ago by a wedding in St. Luke's Episcopal Church. The bride was Miss Jane Murdoch, of Chicago, a niece of the late Thomas Murdoch. She came to Hot Springs from Palm Beach, accompanied by Mrs. Theodore Nelson and Miss Mary L. Nelson, and the party was joined later by the bridegroom, Charles Ailing, of Chicago.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hunter Davidson, rector of the church. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dean Murdoch, of Buffalo, and was attended by Mrs. Nelson as matron of honor, while Van Wagenen Ailing, of Chicago, was best man. At the dinner afterward Miss Mary J. Thomas played an impromptu programme of bridal music for the party present at the church. Mr. and Mrs. Earl P. Charleston, of Fall River, H. Knox and Miss Dorothy Knox, of Buffalo; Mrs. James Newell and Miss Martha Weatherbee, of Boston, and Mr. and Mrs. William F. Rode, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Adams, Dunbar Adams and James Burchell arrived this afternoon in their private car to stay until after Easter.

The Misses Edwina Elkins Bruner, Mary C. Page and Katherine Kremer are members of a party of Philadelphians here for the spring season.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Morse, of New York, have taken the Jackson bungalow, near The Homestead, for a fortnight.

Miss Lillian B. Hyde, a former golf champion, has come up from Palm Beach with Mrs. Richard Hyde and Mrs. Vincent B. Hubbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Rawson Wood are here from New York for April. Mrs. Wood won the Florida woman's championship at tennis at Palm Beach this winter, and is preparing for some match playing here.

Fassifern Farm, the Daniel Boone Log Cabin and the Healing Springs Hotel have entertained scores of visitors at luncheons and teas this week, among those entertaining being Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. George, Mrs. George A. Ellis, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Choate, Mrs. Charles W. Baker, Mrs. W. W. Withers, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Pabst, Mrs. William H. Hyde and Mrs. Clements.

Arrivals at The Homestead this week have included Russell G. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wiggins, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Stowell, of New York; Mrs. George A. Draper and Miss Draper, of Hopkedge, Mass.; Dr. and Mrs. A. Felix du Pont, of Wilmington, Del.; Sir Henry and Lady Egan, of Ottawa; Mrs. Charles C. Harrison, Jr., Miss Harrison and Edward B. Robinson, of Philadelphia.

MISS V. COLBY, OF NEW YORK, DAUGHTER OF MRS. M. E. COLBY, GOING FOR A RIDE OVER THE BRIDLE PATH ON SUNSET MOUNTAIN, NEAR GROVE PARK INN, ASHEVILLE, N. C. It is reported that the engagement of Miss Colby and John E. Liggett, of New York, who was also a guest at the Inn at the time of Miss Colby's visit, will be announced soon.

stocking the various streams around Canadensis with brook trout. Instead of emptying into the streams millions of small fry, care was taken to place only well developed trout from seven to twelve inches in length. These have done well during the winter, and are expected to prove active and game when the season opens. The hatchery men will continue to distribute small fish through Canadensis streams well into the summer. The state maintains game wardens, who keep a strict eye on the anglers to see that they do not fish illegally, so that there is every reason to look for some splendid sport. An army of busy people has been at work all winter in making ready for the opening, and the Spruce Cabin Inn, the largest in this section, will open on April 11. The inn has been greatly enlarged and improved since last season. The proprietors, W. J. and M. D. Price, have built a new wing, which provides for twenty-six bedrooms with private baths, billiard room, private sitting rooms, dancing room and sun parlor. Year by year this Pocono region takes a firmer hold on the visitors, who begin with the fishermen in the early spring and continue until the hunters end the season in the late fall.

FINE SHOOTING AT LAKEWOOD

The Laurel House Gun Club Holds Its First Annual Amateur Meet.

Lakewood, N. J., April 4.—Cottagers were treated to some exceptionally fine shooting last Wednesday when the Laurel House Gun Club held its first annual amateur meet here. Nearly eighty of the crack shots of the East were entered and included such men as C. W. Billings, captain of the 1912 Olympic team; R. L. Spotts, of the N. Y. A. C.; E. E. DuPont, William Ford and A. B. Richardson, of the DuPont Club, Wilmington, and other shots from the Field and Marine, Crescent, Westchester, White Club, Philadelphia and Boston A. Clubs.

Preparations are being made for the entertainment of the members of the Princeton Glee Club, who will give their "show" in the ballroom of the Laurel-in-the-Pines, next Wednesday evening. Mrs. George Fales Baker is in charge of the arrangements and boxes and will give a tea for the club. The patronesses and boxholders will include Mesdames George Fales Baker, Charles Lathrop Pack, Lewis Buckley Stillwell, Girard Romaine, Phelps Hoyt, Livingston Dickason, Frederic A. Potts, William Thaw, 50, Charles L. Lindley, Jasper Lynch, William W. Willock and Elizabeth M. Horne.

With the arrival of the warm spring days social activity has gained impetus and many formal and informal functions have been given during the last week. Miss Martha A. Jamison gave a dinner at the Laurel House Thursday for Miss Brooks, of New York. The guests included Mrs. Phelps Hoyt, Mrs. A. D. Davis, Mrs. Charles L. Pack, Mrs. Girard Romaine, Mrs. Henry Lloyd Herbert, Mrs. George Fales Baker and Miss Ferris.

Wednesday Mrs. Henry Lloyd Herbert entertained for about thirty friends at a heart's party at her residence, Wallabout.

Mrs. George Fales Baker gave a dinner for Mrs. Curtis Bean at the Laurel-in-the-Pines Wednesday evening, afterward entertaining the guests at cards.

Mrs. Livingston Dickinson entertained in honor of Mrs. George Fales Baker at the Locust Farm tea house Tuesday, afternoon.

The largest function of the week was given at the Country Club Thursday, when Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lathrop Pack entertained seventy guests at luncheon and afterward at a the dansant.

Miss Marion Lindley and Miss Anderson were the guests of honor at a luncheon at the Laurel-in-the-Pines Friday given by Mrs. George Fales Baker, of Philadelphia.

Among the prominent New Yorkers were Franklin P. Adams, the author; Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Grosby Gaige.

MOVIE CONQUEST OF NEWPORT

Motion Pictures of Society, Dancing or Otherwise Engaged, To Be the New Fad.

Newport, April 4.—A new fad promises to be popular with the members of the summer colony here this year. The colonists began to manifest an interest in the "movies" last summer, and from all accounts the interest is to spread this year. It is now planned to have motion pictures taken of some of the larger entertainments during the summer, the films to be shown later at other entertainments and at the affairs that are given very often for the children of the colony.

This will indeed be a novelty, for it will give the summer residents a chance to see themselves dancing around or taking part in one or another of the functions that are always a feature of the summer season here.

Already one of the two Newport photographers has equipped himself with a "movie" outfit in anticipation of its use during the season. It may be that the first experiment of this kind will be tried at the floral ball which is to be the closing feature of the flower show, to be held in the middle of August. This ball, it was learned this week, is already being planned, and it is to be given at the home of one of the prominent society women. Which one, however, it has not been learned, but it will probably be one of those connected with the Newport Garden Association, one of the organizations under whose auspices the show is to be given. Mrs. Charles F. Hoffman is president of the association.

It was pleasing to learn this week that Mrs. Theodore A. Havemeyer, one of this city's pioneer summer residents, was planning to come here for a part of the summer. Mrs. Havemeyer no longer has a house of her own here, Friedhelm, on Bellevue avenue, having been purchased
